BUTE HIGHLAND GAMES

TRADE SPACE

Terms & Conditions

1. Applicants must submit a completed entry form with appropriate remittance to the honorary secretary (address overleaf) in advance of the Games. A permit will be issued allowing entry to the arena for the applicant and his/her accompanying stand assistants, numbers involved being at the secretary's discretion.
2. Exhibitors may not sub-let any portion of space allocated to them.
3. There is no electricity supply available on site.
4. No turf may be lifted except where absolutely necessary, in which instance prior permission must be obtained from the secretary. Any costs incurred in respect of reinstatement of the ground must be borne by the exhibitor.
5. Exhibitors must not promote their activities by creating excessive noise or any other annoying behaviour.
6. Bute Highland Games, its officers and officials shall not be responsible for any injury, damage or loss, however caused, which may be incurred by any exhibitor, or his/her representative, or to their property whilst on site.
7. Each exhibitor shall be solely responsible for any injury, damage or loss which may be done to; or occasioned by; or arising from; any machinery or other article; or property belonging to him/her; or activity performed by him/her. It is thus a condition of entry that each exhibitor shall indemnify and hold harmless Bute Highland Games from action, suit, expense or claim on account of any such injury, damage or loss.
8. Bute Highland Games, its officers and officials will not be responsible for any claim for compensation or otherwise in regard to holding or withholding of the Games or for anything arising out of or connected to herewith.
9. Exhibitors must undertake a risk assessment in respect of any stand and associated equipment brought on site.
10. Where applicable exhibitors must submit copies of liability insurance and risk assessment when submitting their completed application form.
